

University of Florida Honors Program
Nomination for the Lombardi Scholars Program

The University of Florida is proud to announce the 2010 Lombardi Scholars Program for exceptional students. Each high school in the state of Florida may nominate one senior who plans to attend the University of Florida. Eight students will be chosen annually for this prestigious scholarship.

Criteria for the award include:

- Outstanding intellect and academic achievement
- Sustained service to the community
- Extracurricular involvement
- Demonstration of leadership or ambition
- Evidence of a strong moral character

The Principal, Guidance Counselor, or an instructor may make the nomination from each high school. Nominations must be included in the student application packet for the scholarship -- Packets that do not include a completed nomination form will be disqualified. Complete packets must be postmarked by February 1, 2010 and sent to the Honors Program, 118 Hume Hall, P.O. Box 113260, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL, 32611. Attention: Dr. Kevin Knudson.
